ORIGINS

In 1890, Agostino Vallebona started trading Sardinian bottarga and olive oil with the north of Italy and Spain. Trekking for days, sleeping in shepherds' huts in exchange for chunks of cheese, the family business was born.

Now from our beautiful shop in Wimbledon Village, we remain true to our heritage, offering only the most carefully sourced products and providing first class customer care and service.

OUR PRODUCERS

PRODUCERS

Our secret:

- ❖ We invest in working alongside a select number of exceptional, small-scale producers and farmers throughout Italy and Japan.
- ❖ We source only natural, organic, and sustainable products from pesticide-free producers with whom we have built loyal relationships.
- ❖ On our shelves, in our cheese room, or served in our Vineria, we know the provenance of every ingredient we offer to our customers.

TABLE @ VALLEBONA

A photograph of a group of people dining in a restaurant. The scene is dimly lit, with warm light from candles on the table. In the background, shelves are filled with various wine bottles. The people are engaged in conversation, and the table is set with wine glasses, plates, and a bottle of wine. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated and social.
